

BRITISH SWEEPERS
CLEAR DARDANELLES

Task of Taking Out Mines and Obstructions Is Under Way—Will Meet Old Russian Fleet

By The Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 1.—A large fleet of the latest types of British mine sweepers today began the task of clearing the Dardanelles of mines and other obstructions. The work, together with other safety measures which the allies consider to be necessary before the allied fleet enters the straits, will take several days, in the opinion of the British admiralty.

A fortnight ago the allied fleet tested the efficiency of the fleet inside the Dardanelles by dropping a few shells on them. The reply of the Turkish warships and mines was so accurate, however, that the allied fleet is still probably in good shape. The allied fleet, however, is a formidable one, and it will require some time to clear the straits of mines and other obstructions. In addition, the allied fleet will be met by the old Russian fleet, which is expected to arrive in the straits in a few days.

The allied fleet is believed to be sure to come to grips with the old Russian fleet in the Black sea, if the war continues. A few weeks longer, there is every reason to believe that the Germans have put this fleet in good order. It consists of seven dreadnoughts, two cruisers and 12 submarines, besides at least 26 other types of war craft. The enemy has the advantage of three good bases in the Black sea—Odessa, Sebastopol and Nikolayev—but it is likely that they are short of ammunition. At Nikolayev four cruises are being built. One of them is nearly completed.

Where Does Howard Live?

Howard a resident of Tulsa? He has not registered since 1914.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? He has not legally voted in years.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? He did not vote in 1914, 1916, and cannot vote in 1918.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? Where is his residence? The last one he gave was in 1914, when he was the guest of his brother, and resided from the present home of E. Constantine.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? Why is it then, that he makes his Tulsa headquarters in the office of the gas company.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? Is that the reason the telephone company and the gas company supported him for auditor, and why they want him to go to congress?

Howard criticized Bert Chandler for opposing the extension of the Osage period. So did Stand and Oil.

Howard criticized Bert Chandler for saving the independent lead and zinc miners of Oklahoma. So did the Guggenheims.

Who approved the raise in rates in the price of gas in Tulsa?—Ed Howard, as state auditor of Oklahoma City.

Who approved the increased telephone rates in Tulsa?—Ed Howard, as state auditor of Oklahoma City.

Who is paying Ed Howard's campaign expenses?

Howard a member of congress—couldn't even run a brick yard.

Who was as poor as Job's turkey when he went into state office and who is a millionaire oil man now?—Howard.

What use to the "home boy" are the Democrats of Tulsa, when no campaign is on?

Who is the rich man's candidate?—Ed Howard. Who is supporting him?—the Guggenheims and the Standard Oil people.

Howard been a builder of Tulsa? Point to one thing he has ever done—except fail to register.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? Oscar highbrowed the whole town, went to California, and Ed moved in Oklahoma City, claiming that town had better school facilities.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? Now just where does he live? He hasn't done a day's work since he was a pup, except hold office.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? He just cannot get along without having his hand in the public trough—holding office is a gift with him.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? Just think how much harder Ed could have stood by the president if his brother Oscar of California had put that $50,000 campaign fund into liberty bonds.

Howard big enough for congress? There weren't any more state offices that he could get?

Howard big enough for congress? Well, Oscar had to do something with him.

JOHN S. WOOFTER
Sheriff of Creek County

If there ever was a man who deserves to be re-elected to office for doing his duty and enforcing the law, that man is John S. Woofter, Sheriff of Creek county.

He was elected two years ago on a law enforcement platform and his every effort has been to clean up the county and keep it clean.

There never was such an organization for vice in any county as the BIG SIX. Under their rule whisky was hauled through the streets in broad daylight and sold openly. Gambling was fast and furious. Thugs hung about the towns, and robberies and high-jacking were daily and nightly occurrences. Oil men could not leave pipe or other supplies on a lease without a guard.

In many of these places it was not safe to be out after dark. After less than two years in office Mr. Woofter has put the BIG SIX out of the county. The famous HUMP, where Ruby Darby was paid five hundred dollars to give nude dances for one night, and where all manner of vice was conducted, is gone. The Armoured Fort and Oil Exchange are gone. The large Road Houses have been torn down. The Boozie Joints and Gambling dens are practically things of the past. Laboring men are not made drunk with rotten booze in hell-holes of vice and robbed of their earnings any more.

Rawdy houses where young girls and boys were lured to their ruin have been put out of business.

The greatest oil county in Oklahoma is now as clean as any other county in the state. All these and many more things have been accomplished under his administration.

Mr. Woofter is quiet, courteous and gentlemanly in every respect and the people of Creek county may well be proud of such a sheriff.

Oil men, business men, fathers and mothers who have sons and daughters, and every citizen who is opposed to lawlessness and vice and in favor of the impartial enforcement of the law ought to vote for his election.

The office of sheriff is the most important of any office in the county and without his co-operation it is impossible to enforce the law.

Mr. Woofter has been called upon to do more work than any other sheriff since statehood. If the Federal Government, the Council of Defense or the Exemption Board wanted anything done the sheriff was called upon to do it. He has spent much time, traveled long distances and borne his own expenses in his efforts to aid in winning the war.

He is clean, honest and above reproach and deserves to be re-elected for what he has done to clean up his county and make it a better place to live.

Howard being a "home boy" is a bunch of past due paper. He is rich now and thinks it undignified to rub elbows with the poor man and register so he could vote to stand by the president.

Howard a resident of Tulsa? "Sure," says Brother Oscar "for political purposes."

Howard big enough for congress? Well, Oscar had to do something with him.

Howard big enough for congress? There weren't any more state offices that he could get?

AUSTRIAN CAPITAL
HAS RIOTOUS TIME

Demonstration Begins in Forenoon—Red Flag Is Wholly Cheered—Berlin Paper Describes Scene.

By The Associated Press.
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 1.—Under the heading "A Republic on the March," the Berlin Tageblatt of Wednesday gives details of the events of that day in Vienna.

The demonstration began in the forenoon with a meeting of the students which was joined by the workmen in front of the parliament building. President Dinghofer of the national council in a speech declared the national government would take over the whole administration on Thursday.

"But without the Hapsburgs," shouted the crowd.

An officer in uniform then called on the soldiers and officers to remove the imperial eagles. His appeal was obeyed with enthusiasm. The imperial standard flying before the parliament building was then hauled down upon the order of President Dinghofer of the Austrian lower house.

"The national assembly met at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. A vast crowd had assembled before the diet and Frankl cheered the red flag which was displayed by laborers from the suburbs of Vienna.

"Socialist members of the diet were cheered when they addressed the crowd in favor of a republic.

"Mayor Wiesner tried vainly to get a hearing but he was greeted with hisses.

"Meanwhile the national assembly had accepted a constitution in which no place was left for the crown. The national assembly has the legislative power while the state council and the state government share the executive power. It was planned to name a new government Wednesday night.

"Victor Adler, a socialist leader, is the probable choice for state secretary of foreign affairs," the Tageblatt continues. "The socialist leader is the most prominent candidate for secretary of war, while the progressive officer is mentioned for minister of justice.

"At 8 o'clock in the evening a deputation of officers and soldiers visited the national council and demanded the formation of a soldiers' council to conduct the demobilization of the army and to abolish provisionally the military garrison."

ROOSEVELT SAYS WILSON
PUTS HIMSELF ABOVE WAR

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Nov. 1.—In a telegram tonight to Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt again charged that President Wilson "puts loyalty to himself above loyalty to the war."

Colonel Roosevelt's telegram was in comment on a message of the president to the socialist candidate for the senate in New Mexico, expressing the hope that Senator Fall would be defeated on the ground that he had not been a supporter of the administration.

Colonel Roosevelt said he had learned of the president's act "with amazement," declaring the socialist platform "denounces the war and declares for what is, in effect, a German peace in language which makes it out of the question to treat as a loyal American any man who in this crisis runs on such a platform."

The colonel said no man in congress during the last five years had "more abominably betrayed American and war record" than Senator Fall and expressed the hope that he would be returned to the senate "with practical unanimity."

MORE DEMOCRATIC CLAIMS
MADE PUBLIC BY LEADERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Statements in support of the appeal of President Wilson for return of a democratic congressional majority were issued today by Secretary Houston and Arthur C. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee.

"It is tremendously important that, while the war lasts, the president have behind him a sympathetic majority in each house," said Secretary Houston. "Republican majorities, though of course, support the war, but certainly no more vigorously than a democratic majority. Hostile political majorities obviously would not conduct as effectively to the easy and orderly administration of war tasks as would sympathetic majorities. When peace comes, the people will demand leadership in both houses in accord with the president. The people do not want the great program of the last four and a half years set aside or materially altered. On the other hand, they will desire that it be extended."

"The issue is now completely clarified," said Chairman Cummings. "The issue is between the president and the critics of the president."

OKLAHOMA SOLDIER GETS PARDON FROM PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Pvt. Clarence E. Sperry, 343d field artillery, sentenced to death by court-martial because he twice deserted to join his partially paralyzed wife and their three children, has been set free by order of President Wilson. The president set the sentence aside because the offense was due to the soldier's "very proper solicitude for his family," and directed that a copy of his endorsement be handed to Private Sperry, as a stimulus to him to remember the fidelity and diligence which is required of soldiers called to defend their country. Sperry disappeared while in training at Camp Travis, Texas, last spring, and was found at his home at Madill, Okla. After being returned to camp he deserted again.

17 OUT OF 20 HENS
LAYING EVERY DAY

Mr. Mahon Had Only One Hen Laying Then He Tried This Plan.

"Out of my 20 hens, I had only one hen laying every other day, until I started feeding Don Sung. In one month, I had 17 hens laying every day. Don Sung is the best egg producer I ever used, and I have tried many kinds."—Moyd F. McMahon, Louisville, S. C.

You will notice that the extra eggs for just one day, paid for all the Don Sung Mr. McMahon used during the month (about 60 cents worth). The extra egg on all other days were dead profit. Try it, as he did, under this offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that Don Sung pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be refunded.

Don Sung (chicken for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily made in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send 50 cents order for a package by mail prepaid. Burrall-Druggist Co., 152 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.
